

2012 Bountiful/Davis Art Center Exhibits Program Application

At the Zoo by Greg Newbold

BDAC 2012 Exhibits Program

The mission of the BDAC Exhibits Program is to showcase and promote high quality art exhibitions created by emerging and established artists throughout the state of Utah and to promote sales of artwork. BDAC is a nonprofit, community based arts organization dedicated to advancing the visual and cultural arts for the enrichment of the individual and the community.

Application Deadline

All applications must be complete and postmarked no later than August 31, 2011.

Eligibility

All artists must reside in the state of Utah. Professional individual artists and groups of artists may apply.

Application Process

Applicants must submit complete application materials and comply with all deadlines.

Images

All artwork must have been completed in the last two years and be a fair representation of the artists body of work to be exhibited. Selected artists work that differs markedly from the image entries may be disqualified. Work previously displayed at BDAC will not be accepted.

Individual applicants: send a CD of ten high resolution images (300 dpi), which may include detail views.

Artist Organizations: send a CD of fifteen to no more than twenty high resolution images (300 dpi).

No more than two per artist, showing a representative sample of the body of work to be exhibited.

Artist Statement

Individual Applicants: A statement of up to two-hundred words relating to the submitted work is required. Include information about your technical process and your philosophy for making work.

Artist Organization Applicants: One two-hundred work statement for the group is required. The statement should include the above information relative to the organization.

Artist Resume/Biography

Individual applicants: Resume or biography should be no more than two pages in length and should include your education, exhibitions, awards, publications, and other information significant to your life as an artist.

Artist Organization Applicants: Each artist must submit a resume or biography as outlined above.

BDAC retains a 40% commission on all artwork sold. Works sold may not be removed until the exhibition closes.
